

Artist born in 1979 in Mercedes, Corrientes, Argentina, currently based in Buenos Aires, but in her works is still the essence of her origins. The influence of permanent contact with nature, water and fields mark her style, with an indelible seal.

In 2003 she graduated as a National Drawing Professor at the Escuela Nacional de Bellas Artes "Prilidiano Pueyrredón" (Universidad Nacional de las Artes, UNA, Buenos Aires Argentina).

In the following years, she attended Juan Astica's workshop and construction clinic with Tulio de Sagastizábal. She was a member of the Experimentation and Artistic Exchange Laboratory convened and coordinated by the Laguanacazul gallery. Since 2016 she attends the workshop and construction clinic of Carolina Antoniadis.

Since 2004 she has developed artistic educational work at the Museo de la Cárcova (UNA), where she is coordinator of the Education Area.

Parallel to her teaching work, she develops her work that she displays simultaneously in the languages of drawing, painting and sculpture.

In 2017 she received the First Acquisition Prize at the Argentine official national contest Salón Nacional de Artes Visuales, Palais de Glace. She has exhibited on numerous occasions and her work is part of public and private collections.
